

"Chronicling something as broad and complex as the Asian American movement is a daunting task. In this important book, Michael Liu, Kim Geron, and Tracy Lai take on this challenge and deliver a thorough, insightful, and engaging account. They navigate the twists and turns, successes and failures of the movement while never losing sight of its 'soul,' which inspired and inspires activists past and present."
- Paul Y. Watanabe, University of Massachusetts–Boston

Asian American Resource Workshop

presents

A Book Party for Michael Liu's New Book

and

Annual Membership Meeting

Saturday, November 22, 2008 • 11:00 am – 1:00 pm

Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center • 38 Ash St. • Boston

off Oak St., between Washington St. & Harrison Ave. • MBTA Orange Line /Tufts Medical Ctr

Join us for this 2-part event!

First, Michael Liu, Ph.D., AARW board member, former executive director, and co-founder, talks about his new book, The Snake Dance of Asian American Activism: Community, Vision, and Power, that he co-wrote with Kim Geron and Tracy Lai.

Q&A and book signing follows. If you are unable to attend, but would like to reserve a signed copy of Michael's book, please contact us.

Second, meet new and returning AARW board candidates and cast your ballots in the board elections. Hear about the latest AARW projects.

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP by Wednesday, November 19 to (617) 426-5313 or workshop@aarw.org.