

Boston Chinatown
Neighborhood Center
波士頓華埠社區中心

Media Contact

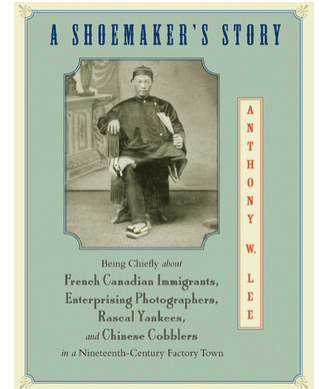

Carmen Chan: 617-635-5129 x1053

Carmen.Chan@bcnc.net

April 16, 2009

PRESS ADVISORY 新聞稿

A Shoemaker's Story Presents Early Lives of Chinese Immigrants in North Adams in 1870s

WHAT:

Meet Author Anthony Lee, Ph.D. – A Shoemaker's Story
On a June morning in 1870, seventy-five Chinese immigrants stepped off a train in the New England factory town of North Adams, Massachusetts, imported as strikebreakers by the local shoe manufacturer... Anthony Lee presents stories and images of immigrants in the years following the Civil War.
Co-sponsored by the Chinese Historical Society of New England.

WHEN:

Saturday, April 25, 2009. 1 pm.

WHO:

Anthony Lee, Ph.D. associate professor of art history at Mount Holyoke College.

WHERE:

Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center, 38 Ash St. (off Washington and Oak Street)

INFO:

Please call Giles Li at 617-635-5129 x1070 or giles.li@bcnc.net.

ABOUT BCNC:

The Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center (BCNC), formerly The Quincy School Community Council, was founded in 1969 by neighborhood residents. Its mission is to enrich and improve the quality of life for the Boston's Asian American community and for residents of Boston's Chinatown, South End and South Cove communities. BCNC provides bilingual education, child care, and programs for youth, cultural, social and recreational purpose. BCNC is one of the largest Asian social service providers within New England, serving 4000 people a year. BCNC celebrates its 40th anniversary this year. (www.bcnc.net)

ABOUT CHINESE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF NEW ENGLAND

The Chinese Historical Society of New England is a non-profit organization founded in 1992 to document, preserve, and promote the history and legacy of Chinese immigration in New England. Programs include the Oral History Project, the Mount Hope Chinese Immigrant Memorial Project at Mount Hope Cemetery, scanning parties and field trips. (www.chsne.org)